Upon arrival, I made contact with Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE) C. Vogt. Nurse Vogt stated the victim, Teresa Braeckel, was sexually assaulted by an acquaintance in her residence at Campusview Apartments. I contacted Braeckel in person in the SANE clinic.

Braeckel stated she was digitally penetrated by Derrick Washington on 06-19-2010 sometime between 0130 and 0300 hours. Braeckel had gone to Harpo's with friends on the evening of 06-18-2010. Braeckel stated she had eaten before going out and had approximately seven bottles of Bud Light between the hours of 1930 and 0100. Braeckel stated she felt buzzed but not "drunk" when she left Harpo's around 0100 hours. Braeckel and her friends walked to El Rancho, where she again ate. Braeckel estimated her roommate picked her up around 0120 hours and that she was in bed by 0130 hours.

As Braeckel entered her apartment, she saw [REDACTED] a roommate who shares her bathroom. [REDACTED] indicated at that time that Derrick Washington would be coming over to see [REDACTED] shortly. Braeckel stated she knew Washington because she used to tutor him when she worked as a tutor for the Athletic Department. Washington plays football for the University of Missouri. Braeckel further stated Washington and [REDACTED] are "friends with benefits" and they had been in that type of relationship for approximately six months.

When Braeckel went to bed, she did not lock her bedroom door. Sometime between the time she fell asleep (around 0130 hours) and 0300 hours, Braeckel awakened to find a male she believed to be Washington lying behind her in her bed. Braeckel stated she had been sleeping on her left side facing the door. When she awoke, Washington had his hand down her pants and his fingers in her vagina. Braeckel stated she did not say or do anything because she was afraid of what Washington would do to her. Braeckel believed Washington probably realized she woke up. Shortly after she woke, Washington left her room. Braeckel was fairly sure the male was Washington because no other male would have been in the apartment and she could see his silhouette as he exited her room. Washington did not say anything to Braeckel and he did not ejaculate. Braeckel stated she could not tell if Washington was fully clothed when he was in bed with her. Braeckel stated she was not injured during the incident.

Braeckel stated she and Washington have never had a sexual relationship or even talked about sex, but that he knew she was a virgin because they had the same circle of friends. Braeckel described her relationship with Washington as being more acquaintances who dealt with each other professionally during their tutoring sessions.

After Washington left her room, Braeckel got up and turned on the bathroom light. [REDACTED] asked Braeckel what she was doing awake. Braeckel told [REDACTED] at that time that she awakened to find Washington in her bed with his fingers in her vagina. Braeckel then left immediately without giving [REDACTED] time to reply. Braeckel stated [REDACTED] later text messaged her saying that whatever Braeckel decided to do, [REDACTED] would support her.

When Braeckel left, Washington was not there. After leaving, Braeckel stated she drove to the Hy-Vee on Nifong and sat in the parking lot. Braeckel called her parents at that time but could not decide if she wanted to contact the police. Braeckel stated she was in the Hy-Vee parking lot for approximately 20 minutes before she drove home. When Braeckel arrived at her apartment, none of her roommates were awake.

Braeckel reviewed her telephone calls and discovered Washington had called her phone around 0220 hours. She believed he may have been calling her to have her let him into the apartment. Braeckel stated Washington has her phone number because she used to tutor him. Braeckel stated she believed Washington and several other members of the football team treated her choice to remain a virgin as a joke. Braeckel believed Washington digitally penetrated her because he thought it was funny.

Braeckel stated [REDACTED] had been sexually assaulted earlier in the year and that our department took the report. [REDACTED] s incident involved a basketball player. Braeckel stated [REDACTED] never pressed charges because she was afraid of retribution. Braeckel also indicated she did not wish to press charges because she felt the same. Braeckel stated she felt the Athletic Department would cover it up and that she would be harassed by Washington's personal trainers if she were to report the incident.

Braeckel was unsure about reporting the incident to the Office of Student Conduct and did not want our department to contact Washington. I explained the resources available to her and Braeckel stated the advocate (who was gone before I arrived on scene) had provided her with resources. Braeckel indicated she was interested in possibly obtaining an ex parte. I also explained that we could issue a trespass warning to Washington for her apartment. Braeckel did not want our department to contact Washington regarding a trespass warning.

Braeckel was a University of Missouri student until December of 2009 when she graduated. Braeckel currently works for Student Recreation.

I asked Braeckel if she minded if detectives with our department or I contacted her on Monday. Braeckel stated that was fine.

Nurse Vogt collected a urine specimen and supplied me with it and the Forensic Medical Report. I placed both items into evidence. A copy of the Forensic Medical Report was also submitted to Records.

Sam Easley
Supplemental/Contacting Victim
06/21/10

On 06/21/10, I, Detective Sam Easley, contacted Teresa Braeckel at the University of Missouri Police Department in reference to this case. I escorted Braeckel to Interview Room A, and she was offered water which she refused. I explained to Braeckel that I would be investigating this case and asked if she would explain to me in detail what occurred with this incident.

At this time Braeckel stated on Friday evening of 06/18/10, she began drinking beer at her apartment at approximately 2000 hours. Braeckel stated she consumed "a couple" beers at her apartment. Braeckel then stated her and her roommate [REDACTED] went and picked up their friend [REDACTED] and they went to Harpo's. Braeckel stated they left her apartment at approximately 2130 hours. Braeckel stated Brethorst drove Braeckel's vehicle to Harpo's, and while they were there she did not see the suspect. Braeckel told me that the suspect's name is Derrick Washington. Braeckel stated she and her friends stayed at Harpo's until a little before 0100 hours on 06/19-10, and then she walked with friends to El-Rancho for a brief period of time. Braeckel stated after going to El Rancho they left to take Ostling home a little before 0130 hours. Braeckel stated she and Brethorst then went back to their apartment and she remembered seeing her other roommate [REDACTED] when she got home. Braeckel stated [REDACTED] told her that Derrick Washington was coming over to the apartment and asked Braeckel if she would make sure she (Braeckel) was not up when he got there. Braeckel stated [REDACTED] and Washington have sexual intercourse with each other frequently and [REDACTED] would prefer Braeckel and everyone else not know that information.

Braeckel stated she told [REDACTED] goodnight and went to bed around 0130 hours on 06/19/10. Braeckel stated she went to her room, and shut the door and changed into a pink tank-top and plaid boxer shorts with no underwear and no bra. Braeckel stated she did not have her contacts in at the time and also was not wearing her glasses. Braeckel stated when she was going to sleep she remembered being a little "buzzed", but was coherent and was still able to function normally. Braeckel stated she fell asleep very quickly and all of her lights were off when she went to sleep. Braeckel stated she then woke up and realized someone was lying behind her in her bed and was digitally penetrating her vagina. Braeckel stated when she realized what was happening her entire body tensed and she then noticed the digital penetration stopped. Braeckel stated she then observed Derrick Washington walking out of her room. I asked Braeckel if she was certain it was Derrick Washington in her room, and she stated she could see that the suspect was a black male and is certain it was Derrick Washington. Braeckel stated she also took into consideration the fact that she knew Washington was going to come over to visit [REDACTED] and also noticed a missed call on her phone from Washington at approximately 0219 hours. Braeckel also stated she was told the following morning from [REDACTED] was speaking with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] told her that Washington got up and left [REDACTED] room to use the bathroom during the time this incident occurred, and did not come back until after a significant amount of time had passed.

Braeckel stated she observed Washington leave her room and he left the door open as he was leaving. Braeckel stated she did not touch Washington while the incident was happening and he did not touch her other than the digital penetration of the vagina. Braeckel stated Washington did not attempt to kiss her, nor did he say anything during the incident. Braeckel stated she did not say anything to Washington during the incident and was certain Washington knew that she had woke up after she tensed her body, and that is why he left very quickly after that. Braeckel stated she was not sure if Washington had clothes on during the incident, but she did not feel any skin or an erection. Braeckel stated there was not penetration of her vagina with Washington's penis and she does not think Washington ejaculated. Braeckel stated she would have known if her vagina was penetrated by a penis because she is a virgin.

Braeckel stated she was lying on her side when she woke up during the incident, and was facing the door to her room. Braeckel stated her back was facing the far wall and Washington must have come into her room and walked around to the other side of her bed by the wall and got in bed behind her. I asked Braeckel if she remembered any odor of intoxicants coming from Washington at the time of this incident and she stated she does not remember. Braeckel stated when Washington left her room she heard clothes being shuffled around outside of her room and then heard the door to their apartment slam shut, so she assumed Washington had left. Braeckel stated she then got up and walked out of her room and grabbed her glasses. Braeckel stated she exchanged words with [REDACTED] as she came out of her room and she remembered [REDACTED] asking her "why are you awake" and Braeckel stated she replied to [REDACTED] question by saying "I woke up to Derrick fucking fingering me." Braeckel stated she then went back into her room and got her phone, put shoes on, and then left the apartment. Braeckel stated she did not even give [REDACTED] enough time to respond to her statement.

Braeckel stated she left her apartment between 0300 to 0330 hours on 06/19/10 and immediately began texting her friends to try to contact them and tell them what happened. Braeckel stated she texted her co-worker [REDACTED] and said something like "I need help, are you awake?" Braeckel stated [REDACTED] never texted her back that morning. Braeckel stated she also texted her friends [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] but they did not respond. Braeckel then stated she called her parents home phone number and spoke with her father. Braeckel stated she was crying and screaming to her father on the phone and was very upset. Braeckel stated she told her father details about the incident and even thought about going to stay at a hotel because she was so scared and upset. Braeckel stated she talked to her father until she decided to drive back to her apartment. Braeckel stated she arrived back at her apartment and locked every door in the apartment and went back to sleep because she knew she had to get some sleep to go to work the next morning.

I asked Braeckel if she could tell me exactly what she told her father on the telephone that morning and she stated she told him that she had been drinking and that she was scared and that she woke up to Derrick Washington fingering her. Braeckel stated she should not have driven on the road that morning anyway and was worried because she had been drinking. I asked Braeckel why she thought Washington attempted to call her early that morning and she stated she thought it was because he wanted someone to let him in the apartment so he could see [REDACTED]. Braeckel stated she barely knows Washington and they are not good friends. Braeckel stated he has her phone number from when she tutored members of the football team.

I asked Braeckel who she has told about this incident and she stated she had told [REDACTED]. Braeckel also stated she cannot remember the advocate's name that was with her when she went to the hospital, and she also remembered speaking with a person by the name of Sarah from the Shelter.

Braeckel stated the following morning she woke up, grabbed some coffee, and went to work and she told her friend [REDACTED] at work about the incident. Braeckel stated she already decided to go get an exam at the hospital before she went to work. Braeckel stated she went to the hospital on 06/19/10 and was there until 1600 hours. Braeckel stated when she spoke with the advocate at the hospital they told her that if she wanted to report this incident to the police we could come to the hospital and talk with her there. Braeckel stated she knew she wanted to speak with the police about this incident and felt comfortable talking with us at the hospital.

At this time I explained to Braeckel that I needed to ask her a series of questions in respect to our department's policy and procedure for interviewing a victim of a sexual assault. I began by asking Braeckel if she had sexual intercourse within the last forty eight hours prior to the assault and she stated no. I then asked Braeckel if she has ever had a sexually transmitted disease and she stated no. I asked Braeckel if she had consumed alcohol prior to the assault and how much. Braeckel stated she had consumed alcohol and it was a significant amount, but she was still able to function. I asked Braeckel if she was taking any prescription medication and she stated she is taking Zegrid 40mg once a day. I asked Braeckel if at the time of the assault she was under the influence of any drug and she stated she was not. I asked Braeckel if the perpetrator forced or tricked her into taking drugs or alcohol and she stated he did not. I asked Braeckel if ejaculation occurred and she stated no. I asked Braeckel if there was any other sex act that occurred other than the digital penetration and she stated no.

During my conversation with Braeckel she appeared to be very emotional and cried on multiple occasions. As the conversation continued further Braeckel appeared to be getting more and more upset and angry that this incident happened to her. Braeckel stated Washington had no right to come into her room that night and do this to her. I asked Braeckel what action she wanted pursued and she discussed with me what her options would be if she pursued charges against Washington. Braeckel then asked for a brief period of time to decide what she was going to do and stated she would contact me within a twenty four hour period.

On 06/22/10, I, Detective Sam Easley, along with Sgt. Shawn Spalding, arrived at Derrick Washington's residence of [REDACTED] Columbia Mo. I contacted Washington at the residence and asked him if he would come with me to the University of Missouri to discuss an incident with me. Washington stated he wanted to know what the incident was about and I stated I would discuss it more with him at the Police Department. I informed Washington it was an incident that occurred at Campus View Apartment Complex. Washington stated he did not remember being at Campus View Apartment Complex and stated he did not want to come with me to the Police Department. Washington then requested to speak with his attorney and communication ceased. It should be noted that Washington was told not to have contact with any resident of [REDACTED] and he stated he understood.

MSHP Lab Report

Sergeant Shawn Spalding

On 12/27/2010, I received a lab report from the Missouri State Highway Patrol Crime Lab reference information pertaining to this investigation.

The report read;

Item 1.1 urine- Teresa E. Braeckel

Drug confirmation by gas chromatography/mass spectrometry:

Negative

Volatiles by gas chromatography:

Not tested

Ethyl alcohol analysis of urine is unreliable.

I, the undersigned, performed the analyses described in this report.

Lisa Walker was the Criminalist assigned to the investigation.

I scanned and imported the lab report into this report. The original lab report was given to the records department. I request a copy of this supplement along with the lab report be forwarded to the Boone County Prosecutor's Office for their review.

Nothing further.
